The Türmli-Treff is a meeting place designed to encourage connections and bridge the gap between different generations and cultures. The Türmli-Treff is open to all citizens of Bassersdorf for free. Children can play together and participate in crafts. Mothers, fathers and grandparents have the opportunity to meet and chat with each other. Our "Bridge Builders" who speak many languages, are always present and available to address any questions or concerns.

Special Program (Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday): 10:00 am snack time for all. Those that would like may also participate in crafts and games which are led by two trained child-minders. After the 11:00 am closing ritual, we tidy up together until 11:30 am.
